

H73 Final Presentation Rubric

Points 100-130 140-170 180-200

ATTRIBUTE	EMERGING	COMPETENT	EXEMPLARY
VOICE Personal, expressive, revealing; compels involvement from audience.	Presenter seems uninvolved; indifferent. Voice is flat, stiff. All tell, no show. Anyone could have done this.	Personality, flavor, style of presenter shows sometimes. Pleasant, involved. acceptable, routine to voice	Confident, vital, honest style gives viewer a powerful sense of presenter’s convictions. Natural language amuses, provokes, delights.
THINKING In-depth, critical.	Takes an unreflective and routine approach to the subject. Little evidence of gaining new understandings.	Takes a successful but ordinary approach to the subject. Remains at knowledge-level thinking.	Unique, insightful, or fresh approach. Analyzes, synthesizes, evaluates and applies new knowledge.
IDEAS & CONTENT Clearly developed.	Central idea is undeveloped. Strays from topic. Hard to follow. Lacks details and examples.	Central idea with support is obvious. Stays on topic. Predictable.	Central idea is focused, clear, and specific. Fresh and original insights. Details keep viewers attention.
ORGANIZATION Work is easy to understand	Order is confusing. Ideas, details, and events not shaped yet. The beginning and end are vague and undefined.	Order of presentation makes sense. Beginning, middle, and end are obvious. Most details are in the right place.	Clear direction moves audience through the presentation. Beginning gains attention. Details fit and build to main point. End provokes thought.

Additional Comments by instructor, if any:

Final points: _____ / _____ = _____ (grade, if applicable)